

BLUE-GREY ARMY, INC.
Presents
30th Annual Olustee Battle Festival Parade
February 16, 2008

You are cordially invited to come celebrate in the 30th Annual Olustee Battle Festival Parade. Over 20,000 spectators will line the streets of Lake City to watch over the 100+ different entries including marching Union and Confederate Army Reenactors who will be firing volleys, Cavalry units, gorgeous horse and buggies, floats decorated of old southern theme, marching bands and more.

While the parade begins on Saturday morning, 10:30 A.M. the 17th of February, the Festival begins downtown on Friday at 9:00 A.M. and runs through 5:00 P.M. which repeats again on Saturday. Downtown Olustee Park and Marion Street come alive with entertainment, over 100 authentic crafters and food vendors with everything from traditional chicken and rice, elephant ears, to soul food.

Come join us in celebrating a part of history as we commemorate the 30th Annual Olustee Battle Festival.
